KONA COMING

Waterfronters today are talking Kona, for the wind is in that direction and she was blowing briskly all forenoon. A kona storm is due, per season and per indications, and those who are next to the vagaries of the weather feel sure there'll be something doing in the big blow line before Thursday.

DIPHTHERIA AND TYPHOID

Diphtheria has appeared in the Honolulu school. Typhoid fever still prevails in the Industrial School for Boys at Waialea. Dr. Bruce McV. Mackall, City and County Physician, left town this morning to visit both places. He will quarantine the diphtheria cases and take such other steps as may be necessary to prevent an epidemic of the disease in Ewa district.

He will take such action as he deems advisable at Waialea. Although being a Territorial institution the school is not within Dr. Mackall's jurisdiction. Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, chief sanitary officer of the Board of Health, is absent on Hawaii with President Mott-Smith, and the situation is one of emergency within the municipal bounds.

Witnesses called by plaintiff up to noon recess were Miss Daisy Smith, secretary of the Board of Education; H. C. Meyers, Deputy Auditor of the Territory; Charles E. King, normal inspector, and the plaintiff, M. F. Scott, husband of the plaintiff, is conducting her case. Deputy Attorney General Lorrin Andrews represents the Territory.

Bishop rendered several beautiful selections, also accompanied the vocal parts of the meeting with their instruments—the guitar and auto harp. Mr. Lee sang two solos. The inmates were very much pleased. Also assisting to make the meeting bright and cheerful were Mrs. Brown, Messrs. C. J. Day, John N. Martin, Mr. Banks, Jun. Mr. Knott and many others to whom we extend our thanks.

WOMAN IN COURT

LADY EJECTS RIVAL FROM DANCE HALL—LITTLE EVA SHIES A ROCK.

Mrs. Nainoa, interested in the operation of the Waverley dance hall at the corner of Bethel and Hotel streets, where the Democrats used to meet, was in police court this morning charged with assault and battery, alleged to have slapped or otherwise battered a rival dance hall proprietor, Terence Kevin.

It seems that Kevin operates a dancery up near Beretania and Fort streets and when he called at the Nainoa place, Mrs. Nainoa believed she had reason to accuse him of attempting to steal away girls to do dances at his place. She therefore ordered him out of the place and when he refused to go she ejected him.

Her case was deferred until tomorrow.

Eva Hammond appears to need severe disciplining, for she is said to have chucked a rock at another girl and raised a lump on the latter's forehead. It was a woman's quarrel in Walkiki the other night, into which men butted and from which they later gracefully withdrew. Little Eva's case comes up for disposition on Wednesday.

Recently appointed Second District Magistrate Wade Warren Thayer, author and attorney, sat on the police court bench this morning and had to listen to a wholesale lot of gambling cases, the result of Detective Keffelt's enterprise yesterday and the assistance of Detective Welch and others.

Of the forty-four gamblers, thirty-one were each fined $5 and costs.
